Arrive as our guests and leave as our friends

Concealed within the historic town of Oakham, and a stone's throw from the Registry Office, sits the Peaceful and elegant Wisteria Hotel.

This delightful grade II listed building is a combination of 17th Century, Georgian and modern design and is the perfect backdrop for your wedding day. Originally beginning life as a hunting lodge in 1604, the exquisite building has seen many changes over the last few centuries, however it has been welcoming guests through its doors since 1979. With many of its original features and stunning climbing Wisteria from which the Hotel takes its name, amplifying the natural brick work of the Hotel, we invite you and your photographer to make use of our beautiful Hotel to create unique images to really capture your special day.

With this in mind, why not also explore local areas of natural beauty, the Hotel is positioned 10 minutes away from the breath-taking Rutland Water. Being one of the largest areas of wildlife and views of natural beauty in the area, you must definitely take up the opportunity for those once in a lifetime exquisite images.

Since 2018 The Wisteria Hotel has been in the professional hands of husband and wife owners Kristy Carey & Chris Newsham. Being a family-owned business, family is at the heart of everything we do. The 'family' vibe which extends throughout our entire team, also extends to the guests who walk through our doors. Our warm and friendly approach to all our guests ensures that everyone who walks through our doors feels welcome, 'arriving as our guest and leaving as our friends'. We aim to provide you with the perfect canvas to create special memories which will last a lifetime. We also work with our hand picked suppliers to ensure every wedding detail and event with us is carried out to the highest of standards.

The team at the Wisteria Hotel would love the opportunity to meet you both in person and learn about your ideas and dreams for your special day. Leave your special day in our hands ... Let us 'marry' you to the love of your life, let us provide you with delicious food and drink, dance until the early hours of the morning, let us provide you with comfy pillows for you to rest your head and the next morning gather your family together for that little extra time for our continental or full English breakfast.

We hope to hear from you soon.
